FARMINGTON, Conn., April 3, 2009 — TRUMPF Inc. and Magestic Systems Inc. have entered into a cooperative business arrangement calling for the two companies to assist each other in the U.S. with sales projects related to TRUMPF's TruLaser cutting machines and Magestic's TruNEST enterprise software, which is used in the laser cutting process.

In a joint statement, Burke Doar, Vice President, TRUMPF Inc. and Greg MacLean, President, Magestic Systems agree: "This new working relationship, effective immediately, marks a positive development for both our companies, while providing opportunities to better serve customers across the laser cutting markets. We look forward to its success."
